Business Directory.

NATIONAL GOVERNMENT.
President
Vice-President
Chief Justice Morrison R Waite
Secretary of State
Secretary of the Treasury B H Bristow
Secretary of War Wm W Belknay
Secretary of the Navy Geo M Robeson
Secretary of the Interior Columbus Delance
Attorney General Edwards Pierrepon
Postmaster General Marshall Jewel
Speaker of the House James G Blaine
Clerk of the Senate
Clerk of the House Edward McPherson

Control Control
STATE GOVER	NMENT.
Governor	Thomas A Osbori
Lieutenant Governor	T H Cavanaugh
State Treasurer	Samuel Lappir
Attorney General	D W Wilder
State Auditor Sup't Public Instruction	John Frase

N°F Acers. Probate Judge Wm Thrasher, County Treasurer H A Needham, County Clerk G M Brown. Register of Deeds J H Richards, County Attorney C M Simpson, Cherk District Court J E Bryan, Superintendent Public Schools	COUNT	Y OFFICERS.
Wm Thrasher, County Treasurer H A Needham, County Clerk G M Brown, Register of Deeds J H Richards, County Attorney C M Simpson, Clerk District Court J E Bryan, Superintendent Public Schools J L Woodin, Sheriff Lyman Rhoades, Surveyor D Horville,	H'W Talcott,
H A Needham, County Clerk G M Brown, Register of Deeds J H Richards, County Attorney C M Simpson, Clerk District Court J E Brysn, Superintendent Public Schools J L Woodin, Sheriff Lyman Rhoades, Surveyor D Horville,
G M Brown. Register of Deeds J H Richards. County Attorney C M Simpson, Clerk District Court J E Bryan, Superintendent Public Schools J L Woodin, Sheriff Lyman Rhoades, Surveyor D Horville,
J H Richards, County Attorney CM Simpson, Clerk District Court J E Bryan, Superintendent Public Schools J L Woodin, Sheriff Lyman Rhoades, Surveyor D Horville, Surveyor		County Clerk
C.M. Simpson, Cherk District Court J E Bryan, Superintendent Public Schools J L Woodin, Sheriff Lyman Rhoades, Surveyor D Horville	G M Brown	Register of Deeds
J E Bryan, Superintendent Public Schools J L Woodin, Sheriff Lyman Rhoades, Surveyor D Horville,		County Attorney
J E Brysn, Superintendent Public Schools J L Woodin, Sheriff Lyman Rhoades, Surveyor D Horville,	CM Simpson,	Clerk District Court
J L Woodin, Sheriff Lyman Rhoades, Surveyor D Horville,	J E BryanSur	perintendent Public Schools
D Horville,	J L Woodin.	Sheriff
D Horville,	Lyman Rhoades	Surveyor
A W_Howland, }
	A W.Howland,

CITY OF	FICERS.
W C Jones,	Mayor
J K Boytl,	Police Judge
N F Acers, J H Richards,
W H Richards,	Councumen
C M Simpson,	TARREST VINCENTAL
John Francis,	Treasurer
James Simpson.	Street Commissioner
John H Willis	Marshal

CHURCHES.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL.
of Jefferson avenue and Broadway St every Sabbath at 10 g a. m. and 7 p. m eeting Thursday evenings at 7 p. m
H. K. Murn, Pastor. PRESBYTERIAN.

Madison avenue and Western street

a. m. and 7 p. m. Sunday School a S. G. CLARK, Pastor.

On Sycamore street. Services every Sabbatha 6½ a. m. and 7 p. m. Prayer meeting on Thurs asy evening. Church meeting at 2 p. m. o saturday before the first Sabbath in each month sabbath School at 9½ o'clock a. m. C. T. FLOYD, Pastor.

Secret Societies.

Hotels.

LELAND HOUSE.

D. ALLEN, Proprietor. IOLA, Kansas.
This house has been thoroughly repaired refitted and is now the most desirable place

CITY HOTEL, RICHARD PROCTOR, Proprietor. Iola, Kansas. Single meals 25 cents. Day boarders one dollar per day.

Attornens.

NELSON F. ACERS, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Iola, Allen county Kansas Has the only full and complete se of Abstracts of Allen county.

FRANK W. BARTLETT, A TTORNEY AT LAW, Iola, Kansas. Money to loan on long time and at low rates on well improved farms in Allen county. 9 26

J. H. RICHARDS, MURRAY & RICHARDS. TTORNEYS AND COUNSELORS AT LAW.

Money in sums from $500.00 to $5,000.00
ed on long time upon Improved Farms in.

Anderson, Woodson, and Neosho coun-

Uhnsicians.

M. DEMOSS, M. D., OFFICE over Jno. Francis & Co.'s Drug St Residence on Washington avenue, 2nd d south Neosho street.

A. J. FULTON, M. D. L. C. P. S. Ont. Canada, graduate Jeffe Medical College, Philadelphia, member of Alumni Association Jefferson College, Physi Surgeon and Acconcher. Office and residence Beck's grain and feed store, Iola, Kas.

Miscellaneous.

L. L. LOW, GENERAL AUCTIONEER. Iola, Kansa

H. A. NEEDHAM,

J. N. WHITE, UNDERTAKER, Madison avenue, Iola, Kan Sas. Wood coffins constantly on hand-na Hearse always in readiness. Metalic Burial Case furnished on short notice.

H. REIMERT, TAILOR, Iola, Kansas. Scott Brother's old stand. Clothing made to order in the latest and best Styles. Satisfaction guaranteed. Clean-ing and repairing done on short notice:

J. E. THORP, DARBER SHOP on Washington avenue first daor south of L. L. Northrup's. Fuel, Prod-uce and Vegetables of all kinds taken in exchange for work. Also, a few good second-hand Razors for sale cheap; also a fine quality of Hair Oil.

D. F. GIVENS, WATCHMAKER, JEWELER, AND CLOCK Repairer, at the postoffice, Iols, Kansas. Clocks, Watches and Jewelry, promptly and neally repaired and warranted. A fine assort-ment of Clocks, Jewelry, Gold pens and other fancy articles, which will be sold cheap.

tyle Printed, Illustrated and Boung in the analysis of Bernamendel by leading thinkers and writers and Sells at Sight. Steady work and Good Pay for Agents, Teachers, Students, Ministers, Vanus Man or Women: Por circulars, terms, 4058.

THE "CRADLE-TOMB" AT WEST-

MINSTER. BY SUSAN COOLIDGE.

A little rudely sculptured bed, With shadowy folds of marble lace, And quilt of marble, primly spread, And folded round a baby's face. Smoothly the mimic coverlet,

With royal blazonries bedight, Hangs, as by tender fingers set, And straightened for the last good-night. And traced upon the pillowing stone

A dent is seen, as if, to bless That quiet sleep, some grieving one Had leaned, and left a soft impress It seems no more than yesterday

And down the long isle, stole away, And left her darling sleeping there. But dust upon the cradle lies,

And those who prized the baby so, And decked her couch with heavy sighs Were turned to dust long years ago. Above the peaceful pillowed head

Three centuries brood; and strangers reco And wonder at the carven bed; But not unwept the baby's sleep; For wistful mother-eyes are blurred With sudden mists, as lingerers stay,

And the old dusts are roused and stir By the warm tear-drops of to-day. Soft, furtive hands caress the stone,

And hearts, o'erleaping place and age, Melt into memories, and own A thrill of common parentage. Men die, but sorrow never dies! The crowding years divide in vain, And the wide world is knit with ties

Of common share in grief and loss And heritage in the immortal blo

A TRUE STORY OF THE WAR OF 1812

Made beautiful a baby's tomb.

Of love, which, flowering round its cross

It was about nine o'clock in the morn ing when the ship appeared. At once there was the greatest excitement in the and the drum." village. It was a British war-ship. What would she do? Would she tack about the bay to pick up strange coast- it last night." ers or prizes, or would she land soldiers to burn the town? In either case there would be trouble enough.

Those were sad days, those old times in 1812. The sight of a British war ship in Boston Bay was not pleasant. We were poor then and had no monitors to go and sink the enemy, or drive him off. Our navy was small, and, though it af terward had the victory, and sent the troublesome ships away never to return, at the time they often came near enough and the good people of the little village of Scituate Harbor were in great dis- just the same." tress over the strange ship that had appeared at the mouth of the harbor.

It was a fishing place in those days, and the harbor was full of smacks and boats of all kinds. The soldiers could be burn the boats. Why don't they go up laughed till they cried. in the city for travelers to stop. No pains will be spared to make the guests of the Leland feel at home. Baggage transferred to and from Depot ing but fowling pieces and shot guns, ing but fowling pieces and shot guns, while the soldiers had muskets and can-

> The tide was down during the morning so that there was no danger for a few hours, and all the people went out on and see what would happen next.

little white tower known as Scituate Light. In the house behind the light-iting Rebecca. scended the steep stairs and sent the by the door unnoticed. boys off to the village to give the alarm.

For an hour or two the ship tacked brought ashore, loaded into hay carts spit joined the fields and woods.

and carried away. It was no use to resist. The soldiers, of course were armed, and if the people would not prevent the enemy from de- toward the light." stroying the shipping.

As the tide spread over the sandy flats it filled the harbor, so that instead of a small channel it became a wide and there was a gentle breeze rippling the off." water and making it sparkle in the sun. What a splendid day for fishing and sailing! Not much time to think of either while that war-ship crossed and recrossed

before the harbor mouth. PRESENT CONFLICT

IN STENCE WITH RELIGION.

About two o'clock the tide reached high water mark, and to the dismay of the people, the ship let go her anchor, swung her yards round, and lay quiet about half a mile from the first cliff. They were going to land to burn the town. With their spy glasses the people could see the boats lowered to take the soldiers ashore.

Ah! then there was confusion and up-

IOLA, ALLEN COUNTY, KANSAS, OCTOBER 2, 1875.

THE IOLA REGISTER.

put in some kind of team, and the wom- brave fife. en and children were hurried off to the The soldiers in the boats heard the woods behind the town. The men would noise, and paused in their work of destay and offer as brave a resistance as struction. The officers ordered everypossible. Their guns were light and body into the boats in the greatest haste. poor, but they could use the old fish The people are rising! They are coming house as a fort, and perhaps make a down to the point with cannon to head brave fight of it. If worse came to them off! They would be all captured worst, they could at least retreat and and perhaps hung by the dreaded Amertake to the shelter of the wood.

It was a splendid sight. Five large How the drum rolled! The fife in their fine uniforms stood up to direct shore. the expedition. It was a courageous company, coming with a war-ship and cannon plodding over the sharp stones, splashing to fight helpless fishermen.

cession of boats as it went past the point into their boats! and entered the harbor.

"Oh, if I were only a man!" cried Re-

"What could you do? See what a ot of them; and look at their guns."

cle's new boat and the sloop!" "Yes, and all the boats." "It's too bad, isn't it?"

"Yes, and to think we must sit here "Do you think there will be a fight?"

I don't know. Uncle and father are in he village and will do all they can." "See how still it is in the town. There's ot a man to be seen." "Oh, they are hiding till the soldiers get nearer. Then we'll hear the shots "The drum! How can they? It's

"Did he? O! then let's-" "See, the first boat has reached the loop. O! O! They are going to burn her."

"Isn't it mean !" "It's too bad! too"-"Where is the drum?"

"It's in the kitchen." "Iv'e a great mind to go down and beat it."

"What good would that do."

"Scare 'em." "They'll see its only two girls, and hey would laugh and go on burning

"No; we would hide behing the sand hills and the bushes. Come, let's-" "O. O. look! The sloop's on fire!"

"Come! I can't stand here and see boats of all kinds. The soldiers could it any more. The cowardly British to and fife, and sat down on the beach and > "Come, let us get the drum. It'll do no harm, and perhaps-" "Well, let's. Ther'es the fife, too; we might take that with us." "Yes, and we'll-" No time for further talk. Down the steps of the tower rushed the two patrithe cliffs and beaches to watch the ship ots, bent on doing what they could for the country. They burst into the kitch-On the end of the low, sandy spit that en like a whirlwind, with rosy cheeks makes one side of the harbor, stood the and flying hair. Mrs. Bates sat sorrowfully gazing out of the window at the the drum and tried the fife softly.

"Won't they see us?" the outside beach."

"Just so. Come, begin! One, two, family on the piazza." three!" Drum! drum! ! drum! !! Squeak! squeak!!! "Forward-march!" "Ha! ha!"

The fife stopped.

and I can't pucker my lips." Drum!drum!!drum!!! Squeak! squeak!! squeak!!! The men in the town heard it, and did it mean? Who were coming?

roar. Every horse in the village was the sturdy drum and the sound of the Gov. Allen's Account of Sam Cary's Con- power of suction this monster is believed icans!

boats manned by sailors and filled with changed its tune. It played "Yankee soldiers in gay red coats. How their Doodle"-the horrid tune. Hark! the guns glitter in the sun! The oars all men were cheering in town; there were noved in regular order, and the officers thousands of men in the woods along the In grim silence marched the two girls, through the puddles-Rebecca beating So Rebecca Bates and Sarah Winsor the old dram with might and main, Sarthought, as they sat up in the light ah blowing the fife with shrill determihouse tower looking down on the pro- nation. How the Britishers scrambled

One of the brave officers was nearly left behind on the burning sloop. Another fell overboard and wet his clothes in his anxiety to escape from the American Army marching down the beach-a "I don't care. I'd fight. I'd use fath; thousand strong. How the soldiers er's old gun-anything. Think of un-pulled. No fancy pulling now, but desperate haste to get out of the place and escape to their ship.

How the people yelled and cheered on shore. Fifty men or more jumped into and see it all, and not lift a finger to boats and prepared for the chase. Ringing shots began to crack over the water. Louder and louder rolled the terrible drum. Sharp and clear rang out the cruel fife.

Nearly exhausted, half dead with fatigue, the girls toiled on-tearful, laughing, ready to drop on the wet sand, and still beating and blowing with flery cour-

The boats swept out of the harbor on here. Father brought it home to mend the out-going tide. The fishermen came up with the burning boats. Part stopped to put out the fires, and the rest pursued the enemy with shots as they could get at them. In the midst of it all the sun went down.

The red-coats did not return a shot. They expected every moment to see a thousand men ready to fire upon them at short range from the beach and they reserved their powder.

Out of the harlor they went in confusion and dismay. The ship weighed an chor and ran out her big gras, but did not fire a shot. Darkness fell down on the scene as the boats reached the ship. Then she sent a roundshot toward the light. It fell short and threw a great fountain of white water into the air. The girls saw it, dropped their drum and she thought it wise to retreat in

Rebecca is still living, old and feeble in body, but brave in spirit and strong in patriotism. She told this story to the writer, and it is true.- Eric Argus.

A Snake Story. ishing the reflector. She at once de- did not heed them and they slipped out "Procuring one day at a toy shop on ses had been recovered. Thereupon he would see them. They went around at them, he fastened it to his trouses leg submitted to a course of training under and stood off to sea, and then tacked back of the house to the north, and to- with a string, whose action he could reg- the instructions of the two men he had again, and made for the shore. Men, ward the outside beach, and then turned ulate at his waist. The family are seated employed. As soon as able to move women and children watched her with and plowed through the deep sand just at the piazza. Suddenly a howl rent the about under the water and accustomed aground and on the flats floated, and ship also. Luckily she was anchored with horror beheld a snake writhing out gone down and search for his mother and those in deep water were swimming south of the light; and as the beach of his trouser leg. 'Snake, Adder!' sisters. Several descents were without around their moorings. Now the soldiers curved to the west, they soon left her out shouted he, jumping from the hammock success; though the remains of the vessel will probably land, if the people meant of sight. Then they took to the water and careering wildly over the lawn. 'I'm were seen, yet no body could be observed. to save anything, it was time to be stir- side, and, with the drum between them, bit! Oh, take him off! Murder! 'Bring But one day as the three men were siring. Boats were hastily put out from ran as ast as they could toward the main him something! quick! Whisky-arni- lently moving about among sharp-pointthe wharf, and such clothing, nets and land. Presently they reached the low ca!' cried Maggie, wringing her hands, ed crags and reefs, and being a considerother valuables as could be handled were heaps of sand that showed where the 'Oh! bring the whisky-don't bring any able distance away from the wreck itself, arnica,' shouted Collier, rolling on the Franz Hauser was startled by the sight Panting and excited they tightened ground and making the snake perform of what appeared as the head of a female gymnastics in the air. Mr. Paddock form. It seemed to hang from the top "You take the fife, Sarah, and I'll (Maggie's husband) having got a big of a reef some ten feet high. He directed made a stand among the houses, that drum. We must march along the shore stick was about to rush to the rescue. the attention of the others by pointing 'Keep away?' roared the sufferer; 'it towards it. Slowly the three stepped beautiful bay. The day was fine, and diers going down to the point to kill 'em its destruction by madly 'chawing' it in such in reality, yet little of the body to sengers, a pretty, delicate young lady The sight, say the two surviving divers soldiers arrived from Boston? What sorry to say that it is the heart." Louder and louder on the breeze came only a Lieutenant in the navy."

version to Democracy. Gen. Cary has not always been as sound on the Jeffersonian goose as you and I. Formerly he was a very Saul of Tarsus, persecuting the Democrotic saints even to strange cities. The story of his miraculous conversion, as related by himself, is one of infinite humor. Failing to be nominated for Lieutenant Governor by the Republican State Convention; failing to be appreciated by a Republican Constitutional Convention, he was gloomily traversing on the great thoroughfares of Cincinnati, contemplating a more ferocious assault on some Democ ratic Damascus, thereby to secure the future confidence of the Republican high priests, and promotion to leadership in their sanhedrim, when a great light suddenly shown about him from the Enquire office, and a voice within was heard saying, "Samuel, Samuel, why persecutes thou the Democracy? Better be a king among dogs than a dog among kings. Follow me, and I will make thee a ruler of men, if thou wilt but turn and rend thy former co-workers." "Thereupon," said the General, "the scales fell from my eyes; and remembering that the deemed it better to reign in hell than serve in heaven, I saw Democracy in light never before beheld, and the dirt which for a quarter of a century I had cast upon it, I am now returning to the Republicans with interest." Thus you see the General has been converted from Devoured by a Cuttle-Fish.

say is very blind Bartimeus,

a persecuting Saul, and though born out of due season, has become the great apostle of Democracy, is Boanerges, I may

A Plymouth (Eng.) correspondent writes: A most remarkable occurrence connected with the wreck of the steam ship Schiller has just come to light. It is remarkable not only for the manner in which it became known, but also because it leads to the strange discovery concerning the existence of carnivorous monsters inhabiting the bottom of the sea. Naturalists must read this account upon its publication in the Mercury with so few bodies of human beings drowned in foundered ships ever came to the surface. While portions of wrecked vessels are not one in a thousand of persons lost is der the ruins of what had been the fine who live about nine miles east of Willis, often found floating even in mid ocean, ever discovered; yet natural causes, such city of Cucuta in the Republic of Coas the development of gases by internal to the surface in a floating condition. It goods and mercalindise. In one place girl heard the infant, aged fourteen divers who went down to the bottom tents drunk, and the bottles scattered on a bed in an adjoining room, utter a last week to examine the wreck of the around; in other places, chandeliers, silk horrid screech, upon which she immedigreat American Army of two had arrived Schiller on the Retterrier Ledges, tell trimmmings, furs, and furniture. In anof what they saw, and which experience a third young man, who was with them, confirmed with his life, the explanation is now made that there are monsiers of the deep who live on human flesh. The story is a brief one. Mr. Franz Hauser, whose body was buried a few days ago at Penzance, near Land's End, was a native of Luxemburg. His mother and and the poor rich." All this was ac-Olive Logan tells, in the Baltimore two sisters were on the Schiller, intend-American, how Jim Collier the actor ing a visit to their old home while be scene of destruction going on in the harfooled Maggie Mitchell, who is his kinsremained in Iowa. Upon the news of bor, and praying for her country, and woman, while spending a few days at her the wreck of the vessel he became so he ped out from under the ruins of their place the girl states that she approached ing of himself, wife, and several boys that the dreadful war might soon be Long Branch cottage. It is a story of deeply affected that he fell into a raging and girls. At the time the ship appeared over. She could not help it. Sons and the keeper was away, and there was no husband were shouldering their guns in were thick in the yard, and Collier haone at home save Mrs. Bates, the oldest town, and there was nothing for her to bitually went out in his slippers. The ies of his relations had been found. He daughter—Rebecca, about fourteen years do but to watch and wait and pray.

Officially went out in his suppers. The less of his relations had been found. He had been found to count the beads of her rosary repeated warning cry of the lady was, obtained no satisfactory information in the relations and been found. He had been found to count the beads of her rosary in the repeated warning cry of the lady was, obtained no satisfactory information in the relations and been found. old, two of the little boys, and a young Not so the two girls. They meant to "Jim, look out for snakes! Adders! the the States, and at last resolved to make a girl named Sarah Winsor, who was visdo something, and in the fever of the grass is full of them since the rains. Betpersonal effort on the spot. He came in her presentation. The whole scene its eyes and mouth, but soon recovered personal effort on the spot. He came excitement they got the drum and took ter come off the grass with those slippers across the ocean, and at once went to Rebecca had discovered the ship while the cracked fife from the bureau drawer. on!" He basely repaid this solicitous Penzance, where at last he gained the she was up in the light-house tower polwhile the reflector. She at a result of the scene outside, attention according to Olive, in this way: They must be careful or the soldiers snakes which make one shudder to look chased a complete diving armor, and began to flow into the harbor. The boats keep out of sight of the boats and the frighted group looked toward him, and seemd into the sea where the Schiller had seemd into the sea where the schiller "No; we'll walk next to the water on the outside beach."

shall bite nobody but me—oh! oh!' forward in the direction of the reef, is interested. The work is published by nanters, 2,600 Brethren and Christian Nearing the spot a pitiful and heart-its ends, he attacked it with his teeth in rending scene presented itself. What cago and St. Louis, and agents wanted women six Exclusive Brethren. shall bite nobody but me-oh! oh!' forward in the direction of the reef. "Oh, yes; and they'll think it's sol- the middle, and apparently accomplished was supposed to be a female head was to sell it. two, to the indescribable horror of the which it belonged could be seen. The corpse was firmly held in the clutches of a gigantic cuttlefish, which with its enhalf an hour's walk. So he jumped. His ter-Day Saints, seven of them women. Theodore Hook didn't always make ormous arms and extended suckers, the jokes. Here is one that he heard: clung to it and to the sides of the rock He was in a coach with two inside pas- like a wild beast feasting on its prey.

to possess. Its arms-the divers counted eight-were apparently of immense strength, being over twelve feet long, and judged to be not less than a foot in diameter where they joined the body. Some of these arms clung to the unfortunate victim, others held fast to the protuberances of the rock, and several were

ter. His wish was not gratified however, victims of shipwreck.

The Ruined City of Cucuta-

A Boston paper gives the following account of a visit to the city of Cucuta, after the terrible earthquake:

ple flocked in on all sides, armed with implements for digging and mules to carry the plunderaway. Merchants who else. I belong to that party from convicattempted to find and recover their safes tion; have been standing in its ranks had to proceed revolver in hand. The interest, inasmuch as it will explain why pillage of the ruins went on for five days, during which time those bandits sent away some fifty mule-loads of the goods of the unfortunates that lay buried unof it fell to the lot of the really deserving. the child once before arriving at the bian Guard, as it was called, mutinied; much torn. the lives and goods of their unfortunate the brave girl who saved the child's life. feilow citizens. In fine Cucta is only a - Houston (Texas) Telegraph. name for a horrible heap of ruins, with its dead inhabitants putrifying under

"Don't laugh. You'll spoil everything, and a plain faced maid. While the was shocking, yet awe-inspiring. They are two surviving divers to frequently the case for papers of a long repeat of the control mistress was at dinner, Hook remarked described the cuttlefish as having a cir- of a low order of intelligence to ridicule to the maid in a tone of great sympathy, cular central body that could not be less the college graduate as a helpless and 1 Materialist. There are a few who "your young lady seems very unwell." than four feet in diameter, of a greenish useless individual. Mr. Avery, of Yale, "Yes, sir; she suffers sadly." "Consump- black hue, with alternate bright and however, graduated only a month ago, were amazed beyond measure. Had the tion, I should fear?" "No, sir, I am dark spots and a slimy surface. It was and already he has secured a position of Emancipation Proclamation. "He might "Dear rounded like a dome, and it seemed as if trust at a salary of $3,000 a year. It is have done worse," says a crusty old comme! Aneurism?" "Oh, no, sir! It is a portion of the human body had been as pitcher of a professional base ball mentator, "he might have named her only a Lieutenant in the navy." absorbed into it by the tremendous club.—New York World.

Mand."

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

ALLISON & PERKINS.

The Republican Party.

Senator Oglesby, in his speech at Cincinnati the other evening, thus referred to the Republican party and the blessings conferred upon the people through its influence:

Under the auspices, under the wise magnanimous, humane policy of the Reswinging through the water like the publican party now engrafted in lasting trunk of an elephant, but twice its size. letters in the Constitution of our country, Such was the view the three divers he who is a citizen by birth or by adophad as they approached this reef, and tion of either State in this Union is a Franz Hauser made a sudden spring for. citizen in all the States. [Applause.] ward towards it; but he was held back. Wherever the home of any of us may be His associates knew that by going any nearer they would expose themselves to attack from the monster, for which they were unprepared. They gave the signal to the boat, and all three were immediately hoisted up. Having the covering removed from his head, Franz Houser declared that he had recognized newed cheers.] I have a right to be in the female face one of his sisters, and here. I cannot feel otherwise than comhe was determined to descend again to fortable, because I am treading my own rescue her body from the submarine mon- domain. Happy country! Grand people! blessed with institutions of this character. he being too nervous and his strength All thanks to the Republican party for too much exhausted, and it was agreed its grand and liberal policy. [Applause.] to make an attempt next day or the day Whether he be white or black, whether after. But, on the next morning, young he be free or bond, whether he be "te Hauser was delerious, and he lingered on the manor born" or a stranger by birth in a paroxismal condition for some days, in foreign lands, here upon this grand till death closed his eyes. The two sur- plateau of liberty, by the grace of the vivors of this expedition under the sea Republican party, we are all made free have made sworn statements of the and equal. [Applause.] No distincion truth of these facts, and it is believed here of caste, or grade of color. No tithat some presentation has been sent to tles of nobility or debility. The fairest the British authorities of the Admirality lady in this audience to-night and the for a complete and thorough scientific ugliest man [laughter] stand alike in the search of the entire vicinity of the Ret- enjoyment of all the civil liberty that errier Ledges to ascertain whether these the human being can enjoy. How grand tremendous creatures do feed on human this idea is! How noble the thought, that to dwell in America is to be the equal of the highest! There are no lines of demarcation, no places of distinction, if a man be moral and a great citizen. I want no better land; I crave no in the Republic of Columbia, a tew days live and die, and only hope my children after me, an unnumbered generation, to The day after this terrible scene peo follow us, all may be spared the privilege of this great republic. [Loud applause.]

since 1854.

A Child Rescued From a Panther.

Last Monday morning a man and wife. lumbia. The streets and lanes among in charge of their eldest child, about the ruins were covered with all kinds of twelve years of age. Towards noon the boxes of wine had been opened, the con- months, which had been laid while asleep best they could under the circumstances. and there are severel blood blisters where the robbers managed to share, and little The girl states that the panther dropped The Chief of the National force stationed fence, and it is supposed the giving away there abandoned his post. The Colum- of the clothes was the cause, as they were to flight and left the robbers masters of much praise cannot be bestowed upon Irish Religious Statistics.

The Catholic Review thinks that the re-The conflict of Science with the Christian Religion as at present waged is a vital question of the day. The new work on that subject by one so able as Prof. Marsh, advertised in another column, will add new interest and the Christogram of the Irish census is a very remarkable document. Nine-tenths of the people range themselves into five classes: 4,150,867 Roman Catholics, 667,-798 Protestant Episcopalians, 497,698 um., will add new interest and the column. light upon a subject in which every one is interested. The work is published by three of them women, forty non-sects He said he thought he could do it; the rians, four Orthodox, five Christadelphitrain always slowed up at the crossing, ans, five Humanitarians, forty-four and to jump off there would save him Christian Israelites, $3 Mormons, 10 Latpricing the different kinds of artificial ites, Walkerites, Morrisonians and there is one Kellvite. There are 60 Freethinkdeclare themselves Pagans, Musaulmans.